Cat and Butterfly with Jessie

Classic cute anime pussy cat considering a butterfly. Food or friend? Hard to know.

Pencil on watercolour paper

Tuesday January 13,

10 am to 12 noon for young kids,

1 to 3 pm for older kids

Abstract Watercolour with Phoebe

Watercolour is the perfect medium to let the paint flow and dribble into unique pictures of things that you love. Here's a cat by Paul Klee.

Thursday January 22,

10am to 12 noon

Teto (A Fox Squirrel) with Jessie

Studio Ghibli character as appeared in Nausicaa.

Pencil on watercolour paper

Thursday January 15,

10 am to 12 noon for young kids,

1 to 3 pm for older kids

Fantasy Watercolour Map Making with Phoebe

Create the guide to your own fantasy world just like JR Tolkien. Put whatever you like in it and don't forget X marks the spot.

Thursday January 22,

1 to 3pm

Weird Landscape For Kids with Phoebe

Get the imagination going using Hundertwasser's work as inspiration.

Tuesday January 20,

10am to 12 noon

Scarecrow in a Suit with Jessie

Drawing the delightful scarecrow character from Studio Ghibli's Spirited Away. The morning session will be relatively simple with lots of teacher help and the afternoon suited for more confident young artists.

Tuesday January 27,

10 am to 12 noon for young kids,

1 to 3 pm for older kids

Animal Collage with Phoebe

Make fun material with colour and paper and then collage them into wonderful animals.

Here's an example from Eric Carle's A Very Hungry Caterpillar book.

Tuesday January 20,

1 to 3pm

Sleeping Totoro and Waterlily with Jessie

Painting on canvas the cute Totoro floating in a waterlily pond. The medium is acrylic paint. Studio Ghibli's Spirited Away. The morning session will be relatively simple with lots of teacher help and the afternoon suited for more confident young artists.

Thursday January 29,

10 am to 12 noon for young kids,

1 to 3 pm for older kids
